

Hannah

COIN

Take the long drag
As you walk downtown
And as I catch my breath
You'd appear from a cloud of cigarettes
You're listening, you disregard
The traffic on the boulevard
Well I couldn't spend another night
In your arms I'm sorry Hannah
But I've got other plans
So keep on dancing
Into the arms of another man
Hold your head up, Hannah
Hold your head up high
I'm sorry Hannah
How will you know if you never try?
Oh, you break your neck
Trying to let your hair down
And is it worth the risk
Just to crash your car for the sound of it?
Well you call yourself an indigo
You had it once but let it go
When I couldn't spend another night
In your arms I'm sorry Hannah
But I've got other plans
So keep on dancing
Into the arms of another man
Hold your head up, Hannah
Hold your head up high
I'm sorry Hannah
How will you know if you never try?
Tell me that you're bored to death
In the skyline that you never left
The light in your eyes is flickering
But are you listening? Are you listening?
Tell me that you're bored to death
With the skyline that you never left
The light in your eyes is flickering
But are you listening? Are you listening?
Hold your head up, Hannah
Hold your head up high
I'm sorry Hannah
How will you know if you never try?
How will you know if you never try?
How will you know if you never try?
