Neverending Hell

Centinex

Stabbing your soul into a unknown conscious
Neverending torture, time to reveal the pain
You are slowly drowning in a sea of blood
Let the evil have it's way, let it crawlEnter the eternal darkness
Pray for your funeral to come
Times of wrath strangles your mind
The home of evil I got inside my burning soulYou are possessed by the mighty darkness
A human sacrifice to honour our masterEnter the eternal darkness
Pray for your funeral to come
Times of wrath strangles your mind
The home of evil I got inside my burning soulDeep inside your frozen veins your blood wants to rule again
Deep inside your empty heart your soul will wake againTortured from the cradle to the grave
Arise, hear the moans from below
Release the armageddon, hell on earthStabbing your soul into a unknown conscious
Neverending torture, time to reveal the pain
You are slowly drowning in a sea of blood
Let the evil have it's way, let it rule, let it crawlEnter the eternal darkness
Pray for your funeral to come
Times of wrath strangles your mind
The home of evil I got inside my burning soul
