

Phantom Limb

Yellow Mellow

you used to talk in your sleep about the shit out of me now i turn off the radio that old shirt that you wore that i hated before now it feels so comfortable now you're a super hero crap a spider man mess got me climbing up the walls i needed more i had to gobut here it comes again i miss you like a phantom limb itching right under my skin i don't need you but i still craving here it comes again
i'm kind of lost but i don't need savingyou kept checking your phone when we're alone you had so much going on the further i wanted to go the more you thought about home we were so impossible so in love with you routines like a prision to me not related that at all i needed more i had to gobut here it comes again
i don't need you but i still craving
here it comes again
i'm kind of lost but i don't need savingi don't need saving i don't need saving
i don't need saving
i don't need savingbut here it comes again
i miss you like a phantom limb
i don't need you but i still craving
here it comes again
i'm kind of lost but i don't need saving

i don't need saving
