

Letting You Go

Shahrokh Sound Of K.

The things that make us deep
Are the things that we wont speak
Well, you and I
We don't feel like we used to
Every day's a memory gone by
What they are to me
Too many words to ever speak
So I'm here inside
And I'm still alive
How do we make it all real
I just cant decide
I want to know you for a while
Instead of letting you go again
I can't be stuck here forever, you know
I'm on fire, I am
I'm letting you know
I'm letting you go
I watch you go
The things that bring us together

Only wait to tear us apart
Time goes passing over us
We get lost within our hearts
And nobody ever can remember
How we got there strong or not
We've gone limber and bent ourselves
Towards our differences now
Pulling us apart
They always try to tell you
You'll be alright in time
But what do they know
They're just another
That's missing something on the inside
And how we'll ever be
Better than a memory
Is the question
You will ask me
You will ask me in your dreams
In your dreams

You will ask me in your dreams
I will see you in your dreams
