Rainin' In My Heart

Al Green

Standing on the edge of the world
Looking for you, babe, yeah
Looking at the sun
But it's rainin' in my heartI don't know when life begins
I sure don't know when life might end, oh baby
Looking at the looking at the sun
But it's rainin' in my heart, oh baby
(Rainin', rainin' in my heart)Even though what's said or done
My love for you is eternal one
But how can I say bye with a love so deep
It seems like it's rainin' all over meI can't understand for the love of me
Why can't it be like it used to be
Stop the rain, stop the rain
Rainin' in my heartSeems like it was only yesterday
We're so in love, so in love just pays
I keep looking at the sun
Somehow it keeps rainin' in my heart
Keep rainin', keep rainin', keep rainin'Even though what's said or done
My love for you is an eternal one
But how can I say bye with a love so deep
I keep praying and it keeps rainin'Somebody stop the rain
Yeah, now somebody stop the rain, rain, yeah
Somebody to see me
Somebody stop the rain, oh yeah'Cause it seems like, seems like
Seems like it's gonna keep rainin'
It keeps on rainin', it keeps on rainin'
Keeps on rainin'
Keeps on rainin', keeps on rainin'And how can I say bye
