Lisa

KANDO BANDO

You're just a girl
against the world
trying to find your way.

Life through your eyes
everyone lies
and don't really mind
what you have to say.

Lisa,
you look quite alright,
but your heart
it cries.

Trying so hard
and thinking too much about how hard you try.

We're singing
to help you see
the world is not fighting you, Lisa
please don't cry your way through cause I'll try
to understand you.

You've learned it's rough when you're missing love everyone's been there.

Too bad you keep your frown off the streets, but you take it out on people who care.

If you could see
the words inside me then you'll let me in.

I'll have to show you
it is hello
can you call me friend.

We're singing
the world is not
fighting you, Lisa
Won't tell you what to do, I'll just try
to understand you

We're singing
the world is not
fighting you, Lisa
Please don't cry your way through
cause I'll try
to understand you.

We're singing
the world is not
fighting you, Lisa
Won't tell
I'll just try
to understand you,

I'll just try
to understand you.
