God Damn Me

Filter

There isn't enough hot water
To be in
There isn't enough salt lake to
To lie in
There isn't enough sky to fly in
So softly
There isn't enough breath to breathe
Not for me
Oh, God damn me
Oh, God damn me
There isn't enough snow to see through
Snow's too deep
There isn't enough fog to see you through
Not through to me

There isn't enough gain to get from
Not from me to run
Oh, God damn me
Oh, God damn me
Nothing changes
Nothing we erase
Nothing to change
Nothing but me
Oh, God damn me
Oh, God damn me
Oh, God damn me
