Could U Be

Mario

Lisa had me thinking she was the only one for me
And Nikki had those angel eyes
That changed my mind
The day she looked at me
Then outta nowhere you came walking in my life
You really blew my mind
Now I don't care about those other girls
It's only you I need in my world, baby
Excuse me my cutie
Tell me, could you be the kinda shorty just for me?
My everlasting meant to be
Oh girl, oh girl
From the moment I saw you my heart starts racing
And I can't let you walk away
So won't you tell me girl?
Could you be the kinda cutie that I need?
My one my destiny, little lady tell me, could you be?
Not saying Trina wasn't cool
But you changed my point of view, baby
Chantel was nice sweet and everything
But nothing compares to you
You stole my heart and I'm torn apart
I don't wanna cause the pain
Girl, I would gladly throw it all away
For what I found in you today
Excuse me my cutie
Tell me, could you be the kinda shorty just for me?
My everlasting meant to be
Oh girl, oh girl
From the moment I saw you my heart starts racing
I can't let you walk away
Tell me, girl
Could you be the kinda cutie that I need?
My one my destiny, little lady tell me, could you be?
Oh, you could be my summer thang
And there's a price that won't tell me
Have I finally, finally found you, baby?
You see I've been a player
But I'm tired of playing

Been waiting for a love like you
And I'm not faking
You came into my life and I feel so brand new
I'm so thankful for you girl, I swear
Excuse me my cutie
Tell me, could you be the kinda shorty just for me?
My everlasting meant to be
Oh girl, oh girl
From the moment I saw you my heart starts racing
Can't let you walk away
Tell me, girl
Could you be the kinda cutie that I need?
My one my destiny, little lady tell me, could you be?
Excuse me my cutie
Tell me, could you be the kinda shorty just for me?
My everlasting meant to be
Oh girl
My heart starts racing
