

Moving Day

Break the Silence

To never end and start again...the story of your life.
I know you think its right to follow this.
You're asking for a fight.
All alone...it's what I am in asking for what's right.
Decisions aren't so hard to make when I'm not in sight.
I'm doing the best thing for you,
and you should have the right to have it all at my expense.
I never held so tight.
All this control, I'm sick of being second best.
It's time for you to move ahead.
Say good-bye.
Fuck the rest.
When I get along...
Awakened to the truth, you're torn up in this mess.
"I never wanted what this is," I finally confess.
You needed more than what I had to give you in a day.
Decisions aren't so hard to make when I've gone away.
I'm doing the best thing for you,
and should have the right to have it all at my expense.
I never held so tight.
All this control, I'm sick of being second best.
It's time for you to move ahead.
Say good-bye, fuck the rest.
When I get along... I go along.
Not again.
When I get along...
