Raincoat

Bibio

I'm standing outside waiting around without you
Trying hard to concentrate on the new
I know you feel it, you want it, you seek the truth
Standing outside waiting around without you
Had a dream of a place on another plane
Where there is no light, and there is no shame
You'd say the sweetest things right out of the blue
The light is fading
And the clouds are rolling through
The only thing I need is
I wanna wear your raincoat
I wanna wear your yellow raincoat
'Cause the sky is coming down
And I'm lying on the ground
I wanna wear your raincoat
Can I please wear your yellow raincoat?
I drift along in a sea of doubt
I can hear your name as the tide rolls out
And I never thought I'd live my life without you
I'm standing outside waiting around without you
Standing outside breaking out of the blue
The light is fading
And the clouds are rolling through
The only thing I need is
I wanna wear your raincoat
I wanna wear your yellow raincoat
'Cause the sky is coming down
And I'm lying on the ground
I wanna wear your raincoat
Can I please wear your yellow raincoat?
Hold out your hands
Hold out your hands
Hold out your hands
Hold out your hands for me
I wanna wear your raincoat
I wanna wear your yellow raincoat
'Cause the sky is coming down
And I'm lying on the ground
I wanna wear your raincoat

Can I please wear your yellow raincoat?
Save yourself tonight
Save yourself tonight
Say say, can I wear your raincoat?
