Ball and Chain

Ebony Ark

I can feel you're here
Hear your voice
Singing that fatefull song
I can feel your hands close to me like sun and earth at dawnWhy did you leave here?
Why your voice seem so sad and lost?
Why did you leave here?
Why come back?
Why this ghost from the past?One day you said to me "I have to go"
Then you kissed me and disappeared through the fog
If only that letter had no arrived
And this day was the last I saw you aliveWhile I was in hell
Every night in my dreams
I heard your sweet voice
Awakening my hopes to returnRain can't clean my tears and nobody but you can feel my pain
My life is an endless nightmareI have come to save you
Take my hand
Leave this life behindI dont want to die
Take my hand
Leave this life behindI don't want to die
Stay away from me
Let me forgive(Surrender to me)Why did u have to go one day?
If only you hadn't gone to this stupid war
I still loving you so much
But you can't say this to me
So take you ball and chain
Get out of here
Leave me alone...
