Dave Matthews Band

Hello, how are you doing today
I hope I find you feeling healthy
I'm so glad our paths crossed this time today
On our way into the night
I saying love treats us well keeps us dancing
Baby I love you well our love is sure and find
So why when I approach you my tears they fall like rain
You tell me baby your heart into a thousand pieces dies Stop only the old and wise with clouded eyes
You can't see what I can see
Blindly throw my faith to the face
Of the next pretty girl to come my way So here we are all of us stand around
We're leaning heavy on each other
But still we worry what is it lies behind
Staring eyes of on another
Love I come to you you turn me up turn me down
Silly baby I love you so it tears me up inside
Love I come to you my tears they fall like rain
You tell me baby your heart into a thousand pieces dashed Stop only the old and wise with clouded eyes
You can't see what I can see
Blindly throw my faith to the face
Of the next good thing to come my way Love running here celebrating and relating Baby our love is pure our love is pure and fine
So why, when I approach, the tears they fall like rain
You tell me baby your heart into a thousand pieces dashed*****Hello how are you doing today
I hope I find you feeling healthy
I'm so glad our paths crossed this time today
On our way into the night
I say its love it's hiding deep deep down inside us all
So maybe we should lift it up above from a deep inside
Love it's not that tough and you come admit it to now
Baby your heart's into a thousand pieces dashed Stop only old and wise with clouded eyes
You can't see what I can because
I blindly throw my faith to the face
Of the next pretty girl to come my way Here we are all of us stand around
We're leaning heavy on each other
Always wondering what is it that lies behind
The worried eyes of one another
I believe it's love it's hiding there in the shadows in the darkness
Maybe we'll shed a little light and it will shine

Love when I approach my tears they fall like rain
Because you know baby my heart's into a thousand pieces dashed
Stop only old and wise with clouded eyes
You can't see what I can because
I blindly throw my faith to the face
Of the next good thing to come my way
I say it's love so share it out share it fair but share it liberal
Maybe our thing's a better world than it could be love
But love when I approach the tears they fall like rain
You tell me baby your heart's into a thousand pieces dashed
Stop only old and wise with clouded eyes
You can't see what I can
I blindly throw my faith to the face
Of the next good thing to come my way
