Restless

Asrai

I'm feeling restless tonight
Is it a dream or our goodbye?
The snake bites my spine
I'm between the devil and the deep awakeningYour hand on my mouth
I choke in the words
And nothing comes out
I'm too deep
Still too connected
The warmth unprotected
I'm in too deepI know what I'm feeling but I can't stop thinking
The poison of a jealous mind
I'd rather live the lie than be lost in the truth
At least you had a choice, but you took
You took mine, tooI see the fear in your eyes
I want to get closer
I see the fear in your eyesI can't reach you
I can't reach youEvery touch feels different
Every word I can't believe
Every touch feels different
We're both locked up in our griefPlease don't ask me how I feel
You don't want to hear
The doubt I'm already inYour hand on my mouth
I choke in the words
And nothing comes out
I'm too deep
Still too connected
The warmth unprotected
I'm in too deepI'm in too deep
