

Oh Ana

Mother

I'll be god today, hold my head under that bath and breathe away

Slit my wrists and watch that blood evaporate

Being this godly can't be good for Ana's safety

Ana hear meI'll play god today, anti up and play that god a poker game

Walk away with all our little god's spare change

Playing this god it can't be good for Ana's safety

Ana hear meOh Ana, I'll be with you still

You are the angel that I couldn't killI'll fake god today, hop up on a cloud and watch the world decay

Ana on my shoulders and we'll laugh away

Faking this god it can't be good for Ana's safety

Ana hear me, Ana baby, I'm not crazyOh Ana, I'll be with you still

You are the angel that I couldn't kill
