

Bullets

Smash Into Pieces

You're the trigger dancing with a loaded gun
You're the player sleeping with the loving one
I am holding on to promises
Looking back at memories
But now, walking away
Bullets fly like the last kiss goodbye
Gives me piece of mind
I'm leaving memories behind
Bullets fly like a fire where we fight
Let the tears put it out, leaving my love in the ground
We are like a story with a perfect end
Let me aim, you will never be the same
I have had enough of you
And all the twisted things you do
So now, I'm not gonna stay
Bullets fly like the last kiss goodbye
Gives me piece of mind
I'm leaving memories behind
Bullets fly like a fire where we fight
Let the tears put it out, leaving my love in the ground
You're the trigger dancing with a loaded gun
So I lay my fire like you want
Bullets fly like the last kiss goodbye
Gives me piece of mind
I'm leaving memories behind
Bullets fly like a fire where we fight
Let the tears put it out, leaving my love in the ground
