Worship Him

Samael

He is life, He is death
He is virtue, He is vire
He is the flame of reason
He is the verbe of our thoughts
He is the justice of our trials
He is the gallows of the infidels
He is the fire of vengeance
He is the blade of revenge
He is the executioner's axe
He is the hangman's rope
He is the fall of the kingdom of ignorance
He is the end of the reign of intolerance
He is the torch of our hope
He is the reason of our existence
...Worship him
