

Shame Shame

From First to Last

If ignorance is bliss
Then eradicate my knowledge of my history
Now meaningless left on my own I looked for a long time
Crossed paths with your kind
But some things are better left alone Wake up lonely, hating my life alone
Wake up lonely, hating my life Shame, shame on me
Come again
Shame, shame on me
Come again Just bodies, they bite, they scratch
They crawl at golden souls
Show pictures you won't see or never know Just bodies, these golden souls
With pictures were deleted
Heaved into the ocean to drown with their brothers, brothers Wake up lonely, hating my life
Their brothers
Wake up lonely, hating my life Shame, shame on me
Come again
Shame, shame on me
Come again Come again
Come again Oh, shame, shame on me
Come again
Shame, shame on me
Come again Oh, shame, shame on me
Come again
Shame, shame on me
Come again
