

Shame Shame

From First to Last

If ignorance is bliss
Then eradicate my knowledge of my history
Now meaningless left on my ownI looked for a long time
Crossed paths with your kind
But some things are better left aloneWake up lonely, hating my life alone
Wake up lonely, hating my lifeShame, shame on me
Come again
Shame, shame on me
Come againJust bodies, they bite, they scratch
They crawl at golden souls
Show pictures you won't see or never knowJust bodies, these golden souls
With pictures were deleted
Heaved into the ocean to drown with their brothers, brothersWake up lonely, hating my life
Their brothers
Wake up lonely, hating my lifeShame, shame on me
Come again
Shame, shame on me
Come againCome again
Come againOh, shame, shame on me
Come again
Shame, shame on me
Come againOh, shame, shame on me
Come again
Shame, shame on me
Come again
