My Brother's Keeper

Anwar

They dont know how far back that we go (we go)
From riding skates, to riding on 24's
From off the block husttlin to rockin shows
we done seen many bumps in the road
But still we remain, still in the game
Never worry , about them haters, that will never change
And i put this on everything man
I am my brother's keeper.
Verse : Kain
Listen D-roc, i know you dont think i care for ya, but at a drop of a dime i'll be there for ya, and anybody want to see us apart we need to get rid of they ass man and thats from the heart. Pick em apart now that the ying yang twins got some ends, we seem to have plenty of friends. excuse me then friend, let me borrow a stck and when tomorrow comes dont ask me to borrow it back. If they cant do that they dont contribute to the answer ? ? from the ? serious as cancer. If i was jojo dancer i would do the same thang, not to let another man spark my flame. D-roc is the ying , Kain is the yang but without the both of us we aint got a damn thang. Its me and my brother, my brother and me, all that you see on TV
Chorus

Verse : d- roc
United states of Atlanta its still me and my brother we done been through a lot but still kain i love ya. blood, sweat, and tears, good days and bad from the time you make me laugh or you made me mad. I still got cha back but imma take ya way back when we was sufferin just to get a nickle sack, scraping up change trying to make 2 dollars or 3 to get some 99 cent hamburgers to eat and then ride thorough atlanta in yo raggedy car. back then we was some underground superstars and these last 5 years we done put work in, now the whole world know of the ying yang twins. Even though we dont spend time at home together, we hit the road and its like we never left each other. Now thats love. I love you til the day that i leave so its still my brother and me.
Chorus
Verse: Kain and D- roc
People of the world we must change our mind frame and stay away from the con and mind games. Its hard to maintain and stay sane at the same time, steady working hard but you bareky gettin by trying to make a line between stress and peace and satan always gettin the best of me, my closest of kin, my best friend, man we all in the struggle but you gotta remember im yo brother.
Listen people you need to start helping yo brother, helping yo sister, mama, daddy, children and all. Dont leave these babies out here all alone they dont know whats going on. THey dont know right from wrong, so when you see yo brother give him a hug and a shoulder to lean on and dont leave him out here on his own cause times gettin hard these days. We at war amongest ourselves and we at war overseas brother.
Chorus.
