

Sister

Vetiver

Sister, come back home
Mom and dad are mad at me and
Gone looking for you
Sister, what did you do?
Folks say you're at that age,
Goin' through some kinda stage, but
It's safe now, the coast is clear
Come back,
I'm the only one here sister
Oooooh ooh ooh ooh...
Sister, I need to know,
Why you're fighting this world so
Old enough to dare,
Too young to be treated fairly
Too bold to be told, sister
Oh oh ohh ooh... sister, oooh, ooh, oooh...
I heard voices, high
Saw tears but did not ask why
You fought back with crass, sister
Some loves are bound to be
Much more than the world believes
You locked the door and you left the key behind
I pray that you'll come to
Your senses, and when you do
Hear my plaintive moan
See how these strange minds grow
Your feeling at home, sister
Oooooh ooh ooh ohh... sister
Oooooh ooh ooh... Sister
Oooooh ooh ooh... Sister...
