Jingle Jangle

The Unclaimed

Jingle jangle, my love wears silvery bangles
She likes to wander and that's why I'm under
The spell of her jingle jangle
We used to cry on each others shoulder
Now that I'm older, she wanders ahead
Now that she's found love, I still hear the sound of Silvery bangles, remain in my head
Jingle jangles, my love wears silvery bangles
She used to wander and that's why I'm under
The spell of her jingle jangle
