

Starry Eyed

Lana Del Rey

Oh, boy you're starry eyed
Lay back, baby lay back
You've got heaven in your eyes
I like that, boy I like thatLife doesn't always work out
Like you planned it
They say make lemonade out of lemons
But I try and I just can't understand it
All this trying for no good reason
Man makes plans and God laughs
Why do I even bother to ask?
Well, once you and I, we were the king and queen of this town
It doesn't matter now
The sun set on our love, bye babyOh, boy you're starry eyed
Lay back, baby lay back
You've got heaven in your eyes
I like that, boy I like thatLife doesn't always work out
Like you planned it
They say make lemonade out of lemons
But I try and I can't understand it
All this bragging for not good reason
Man makes plans and God laughs
Why do I even bother to ask?
Well, once you and I, we were the king and queen of this town
It doesn't matter now
The sun set on our love, bye, bye babyOh, boy you're starry eyed
Lay back, baby lay back
You've got heaven in your eyes
I like that, boy I like thatIt doesn't matter what they say
Let's go do it anyway
'Cause you and I have an undying kind of love
You can be mine, I'll be yours, be my babyOh, boy you're starry eyed
Lay back, baby lay back
You've got heaven in your eyes
I like that, boy I like thatOh, boy you're starry eyed
Lay back, baby lay back
You've got heaven in your eyes
I like that, boy I like that
