

Visions

PAUW

Gazing at the sky, searching for unseen light

Rambling endless roads, they'll lead us homeSpeaking tongues of silence, riding the horizon

Taildust of the sun, make us become oneWe are the lights of the night

We go out of sight, out of mind

We are the lights of the night

We go out of sight, out of mindLucy in the sky shows us where diamonds hide

Follow all the stars, treat us with a thunderSpeaking tongues of silence, riding the horizon

Daylight says the dust, how long will we have

For visions which are concealed and disguised within our delights

We are the lights of the night

We go out of sight, out of mind

We are the lights of the night

We go out of sight, out of mind
