

New Generation

Dizzy Wright

Independent, sold out shows, and I don't think that's changing!
My fans say they wanna see me turn it up, and I can't leave ya'll hangin'
Bout that life, who came to see me rock this crowd? Damn, I must be famous Came so far and it feels so amazing, and now we dealing with a new generation(It's turn up season, turn up-turn up season, turn up-turn up season)
And I don't think that's changing!
(Turn up-turn up season, turn up-turn up season)
And I don't think that's changing!
(Turn up-turn up season, turn up-turn up season)
Came so far and it feels so amazing, and now we dealing with a new generation(It's turn up season, turn up-turn up season, turn up-turn up season)
And I don't think that's changing!
(Turn up-turn up season, turn up-turn up season)
And I don't think that's changing!
(Turn up-turn up season, turn up-turn up season)
Came so far and it feels so amazing, and now we dealing with a new generationNiggas getting live in the back
The left side of the map, got niggas tryna do rap
Been around the whole world once and I'm back
And I'm plottin' on how to do laps (yup)
Dropped and see how they react
Even though it's world peace until the whole world collapse
And now we dealing with a generation gap
No commercial, I'm a little too thug for that
But it's turnt up season to the max, straight out the trap
Get it jumping for show, pay ten racks for a show
Reminiscent on the days when I used to come for the low
Came up, now I'm finna blow
Shit, my feelings the fuel to my rocket
I won a million before you know I got it
She got a man but she gonna drop it, she so out of pocket!
I'm on my grind and I'm tired, they blaze with us to get higher
These Vegas niggas on fire, now these promoters throw us on flights
Was it make them tell, if you step to a king
Man, you brave as hell, who gon' try it?
You niggas late as hell
My bitch booty look like K. Michelle, and I'm feeling this fire!
That theseIndependent, sold out shows, and I don't think that's changing!

 And I don't think that's changing!
 (Turn up-turn up season, turn up-turn up season)
 Came so far and it feels so amazing, and now we dealing with a new generation You niggas confused, and I noticed it
 So I stay in my lane while I'm rolling it
 It's a shame, you fuck with my older shit
 Well, the world can't see who I been growing with I've came so far, niggas can't even get over it
 No way no one is ignoring it
 So move it, my homies in foreign countries
 Found the weed before we went exploring it
 This talent is what I was born with Took about twenty years before I was touring it
 Do you like it? Cause it's the first time you done heard it
 Just wait 'til you see me performing it
 I'm so live on the stage cause I smoke and I rage
 And I jump on the crowd like I'm Method Man
 So I'm puffin and rapping my verse on they hands
 So high I hope that I never land
 See a lot of niggas that I'm better than
 In my FV letterman, on a plane Headed somewhere I ain't never been Always on the move, I don't settle in Coming for the mother fucking throne (Yiggity Yuhh)
 In a crazy city known to let the devil in Every time he knock knock knock, girls let him in Gotta dumb it down to stay two steps ahead of them, call me competitive
 But I still got what you was trying to be, a clone
 Now I'm pulling up the-Independent, sold out shows, and I don't think that's changing!
