The New Deal

Refused

Nazi propaganda, another lie
You don't get it, never did, never will
Try to deny events of history
So blinded by your white pride that you don't seeExcuses, excuses to cover up the facts
You're blindfolded to scared to look back
The fake empire is on the rise
But most people don't care and they don't open up their eyesIf you make up a lie and sell it big enough
Some people will buy 'cause they are stupid enough
We gotta stop this hate
We gotta end this trendThe silent majority, too scared to see
That fear and aggravation only brings violent ways
'Cause when foreign hostility is at it's peak
People seem to go for the easy answersIn this time and age it is easy to create a new wave
Or movement that inspires hate
A trend of dividing, just right in time
When immigration, overpopulation is on everyone's mind
