Fall Again (feat. Robin Thicke)

Kenny G

Feels like a fire that burns in my heart
Every single moment that we spend apart
I need you around for every day to start
I haven't left you alone...

Something about you, starin' in your eyes
Everything I'm looking for I seem to find
All this time away is killing me inside
I need your love in my life...

I wanna spend time till it end
I wanna fall with you again
Like we did when we first met
I wanna fall with you again...

Fought in a battle, but nobody won
Left ourselves a mountain to be overcome
You can't run away, the past is said and done
I need us to carry on...

I wanna spend time till it end
I wanna fall with you again
Like we did when we first met
I wanna fall with you again...

You'll try everything
You never thought it before
When you live, when you love,
And you give them your all
You're always give up some more...

Loving mean's anything
I can breathe, I can bleed,
I can die in my sleep
You're always there in my dreams...

I wanna spend time till it end
I wanna fall with you again
Like we did when we first met

I wanna fall with you again...

I wanna spend time till it end
I wanna fall with you again
Like we did when we first met
I wanna fall with you again...

All that I find here in my heart
(That's cool.. ooh-aah...)
