Right Back

KANE, YURI

Well, you can't keep talkin' about it
Till you're stone cold blue in the face
But there ain't nothing, darlin'
That true love can't replace
Still, you're right back
(Right back)
Tryin' to pretend
Still, you're right back
(Right back)
Doin' the same old thing again
You're money hungry
And your heart is full of greed
Tellin' everybody you get everything you need
Well, now you're right back
(Right back)
I said you're right back
(Right back)
Doin' the same old thing again
Yeah, for me, it's the same old movie
Same old movie, just a different scene
You never mean what you're sayin'

And never sayin' nothin' that you mean
Well, now, you're right back
(Right back)
Tryin' to pretend
And yeah, you're right back
(Right back)
Doin' the same old thing again
You're money hungry
And your heart is full of greed
Tellin' everybody you get everything you need
And now, you're right back
(Right back)
And you're right back
(Right back)
Doin' the same old thing again

Right back
