

We Are One

Blondfire

Old enough for all directions,
Here within the same dimension
Follow me through all the dead-ends,
Streets that bleed through your affection I wanna erase this town
Burn, burn, burn it up now
Closer than together now, ahhh
Ohh, yeah we are we are one
Ohh, til the damage is done
We are, we are, we are, we are one
We are, we are, we are, we are one
Ohh yeah, we are, we are one
We can move without convention
If love is home, then we're a mansion
Follow me through all the memories,
Autumn leaves and good intentions I wanna erase this town
Burn, burn, burn it up now
Closer than together now, ahhh
Ohh, yeah we are we are one
Ohh, til the damage is done
We are, we are, we are, we are one
We are, we are, we are, we are one
Yeah, we are, we are one (are one) We are ooone
I wanna erase this town
Burn, burn, burn it up now
Closer than together now, ohhh
Ohh, yeah we are we are one
Ohh, til the damage is done
We are, we are, we are, we are one
We are, we are, we are, we are one
Ohh, yeah, we are, we are one (are one) We are one x6
