

Rainy Dayz

Attic Tree

Heh, yeah
Rule baby, heh
Mary J. Blige
Murda INC, smile
It's just those rainy dayz
Spend a lifetime tryin' to wash away
Until the sun comes out and shines again
Smile for me, smile for me
All of those rainy dayz
Spend your lifetime tryin' to wash away
Until the sun shines and I see your face
Smile at me, smile at me
We were always livin' so crazy and sexy and cool
And we began to love it
Watchin' all of the heartache and pain of the world
And thinkin' nothin' of it
And baby I got love for you
And I know that you got me, baby
But every time the sun shines bright
It gets so cloudy
It's just those rainy dayz
Spend a lifetime tryin' to wash away
Until the sun comes out and shines again
Smile for me, smile for me
All of those rainy dayz
Spend your lifetime tryin' to wash away
Until the sun shines and I see your face
Smile at me, smile at me
Nobody loves the rain, can't stand it
It always seems to fall, baby, handle it
Baby, what did we tell you before
About chasin' those waterfalls? Yeah
Nobody loves the rain, can't stand it
It always seems to fall, baby, handle it
Baby, what did we tell you before
About chasin' those waterfalls? Yeah
Yeah baby, sometimes the Rule don't mind the rain
It kinda feels like I'm drownin' in the Lord's pain
Until the sun comes out and shines again

Smile, give me reason to keep believin' that everything ain't misleadin'

And I kiss the clouds on the rainy days

And, smile for you when the skys are gray

Babe, 'cause I'm a tear drop away from cryin'

And a few shots away from dyin'

Dear Lord, would You shower my pain? Let it rain, let it rain on me

While I cherish the air I breathe

I'm an angel, that can't soar, can't fly

And I, mastered it Lord knows why

It's just those rainy dayz

Spend a lifetime tryin' to wash away

Until the sun comes out and shines again

Smile for me, smile for me

All of those rainy dayz

Spend your lifetime tryin' to wash away

Until the sun shines and I see your face

Smile at me, smile at me

I feel like an angel with my broken wings

So I can soar again, Lord let me in

Baby through all the passion the pain and the hurt

I feel like I'm fallin', yeah

Makin' clothes for all of those that spread love

And for those who can't take it, stand up

Baby, we gonna make it in the words of Marvin Gaye

War is not the answer

'Cause nobody loves the rain, can't stand it

It always seems to fall, baby, handle it

Baby, what did we tell you before

About chasin' those waterfalls? Yeah

Nobody loves the rain, can't stand it

It always seems to fall, baby, handle it

Baby, what did we tell you before

About chasin' those waterfalls? Yeah

It's just those rainy dayz

Spend a lifetime tryin' to wash away

Until the sun comes out and shines again

Smile for me, smile for me

All of those rainy dayz

Spend your lifetime tryin' to wash away

Until the sun shines and I see your face

'Til the sun shines

Just smile for me

Just smile for me, just smile at me

Know in your heart, that we are free
Free to believe, whatever we feel
So feel somethin' real, baby
Hey, hey
