It's M.C. and Y.J. another hit, okay
We lookin' fine, takin' off, saw us on a runway
 On any given Sunday, Monday, Tuesday
They try to confuse me, I never let 'em use me
 I was a girl, you was a man
 I was too young to understand
 I was naive, I just believed
 Everythin' that you told me
 Said you were strong, protectin' me
 Then I found out that you were weak
 Keepin' me there under your thumb
 'Cause you were scared that I'd become
 Much more than you could handle
 Shinin' like a chandelier that decorated
 Every room inside the private hell we built
 And I dealt with it like a kid I wished I could fly away
 But instead, I kept my tears inside
 'Cause I knew if I started I'd keep cryin' for the rest of my life
 With you I finally built up the strength to walk away
 Don't regret it but I still live with the side effects
 Wakin' up scared some nights still dreamin' 'bout them violent times
 Still little protective 'bout the people that I let inside
 Still a little defensive thinkin' folks be tryin' to run my life
 Still little depressed inside, I fake a smile and deal with the side effects
 Side effects, side effects, side effects
 Vacant inside, no one was there
 Couldn't be real, had to keep quiet
 Once in a while put up a fight
 It's just too much night after night
 After a while I would just lie
 You wasn't wrong, said you was right
 Did what I could just to survive
 Couldn't believe this was my life
 Flickerin' like a candle, doin' my best to handle
 Sleepin' with the enemy, aware that he was smotherin'
 Every last part of me so I broke away
 And finally found the strength to breathe
 I kept my tears inside
 'Cause I knew if I started I'd keep cryin' for the rest of my life

With you I finally built up the strength to walk away

Don't regret it but I still live with the side effects

Wakin' up scared some nights still dreamin' 'bout them violent times

Still little protective 'bout the people that I let inside

Still a little defensive thinkin' folks be tryin' to run my life

Still little depressed inside, I fake a smile and deal with the side effects

Side effects, side effects, side effects

Hey, hey, hey, let's go

Hey magnifico or should I say magnificent?

Ain't nothin' worth your happiness

And I ain't carin' who you're with

Misery love company

So we ain't tryin' to hang with y'all

Hurt you if ya let 'em in

Gotta keep ya sucka smilin'

Keep tryin' to play 'pology

I tell him I ain't bowlin' tho

Think they want me outta here

I tell 'em I ain't goin' tho

Side effects be drowsiness

Loneliness, how is this?

I think they call it hateration

What can you prescribe for this?

Forgive but I can't forget

Every day I deal with this

I live with the side effects

But I ain't gonna let them get the best of me

Forgive but I can't forget

Every day I deal with this

I live with the side effects

But I ain't gonna let them get the best of me

I kept my tears inside 'cause I knew

If I started I'd keep cryin' for the rest of my life

With you I finally built up the strength to walk away

Don't regret it but I still live with the side effects

Wakin' up scared some nights still dreamin' 'bout them violent times

Still little protective 'bout the people that I let inside

Still a little defensive thinkin' folks be tryin' to run my life
