Someday

Julian Lennon

How does it feel to be one the beautiful people?
Say a prayer and close your eyes
Someday, Someday
Hope and pray we get it right
One day, One day
Everyone's the same (Everyone's the same)
We get lost and we get broken
Isn't it a shame (Isn't it a shame)
Words unspokenChorus:
We're all in it together
Someday, Someday
One love now and forever
Someday, Someday
Wish our dreams could be as one
Someday, Someday
Try to fix what we've undone
One day, one dayNothing stays the same
When you're lost and when you're broken
All that's left remains (All that's left remains)
Words unspokenChorusWell it's not about right or wrong
Or how far down the road we've gone
Oh oh, it's just about holding onHow does it feel to be one of the beautiful people?Last Chorus:
We're all in it together
Someday, Someday
One love, now and forever
Someday, Someday
Say a prayer and close your eyes
If you don't mind how many tries
It's not your ship you think you steer
What you believe just might appear
One love, now and forever
Someday, Someday
We're all in it together
Someday, Someday
Say a prayer and close your eyes
If you don't mind how many tries
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful people?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful people?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful people?

How does it feel to be one of the beautiful people?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful people?
