

All I Know About Mexico

Montgomery Gentry

I didn't know you weren't supposed to drink the water
I never knew it was so hard to get through south of that border
If I had any idea it took that many pesos to make a dollar
I'd have moved down there yeah, I'd probably been a millionaire Rosa at the Bayou told me Sinco De Mayo is their 4th of July
And you don't sneak up on a Jabanero Pepper and just take a bite
Rosa says the sunsets on some of them beaches that'll make you cry
I said, "Is that right? 'Cuz up until tonight" All I knew about Mexico
Was him with my baby on the back of that Harley
Passin' every car as fast as they could go
Now all I know about pretty a white sand
Is she's probably on it now sharing a little beach towel
With her left me for another man
Or working on a tan I bet, while I'm here trying to forget
All I know about Mexico And I've heard some pretty scary stuff about them jails down in Tijuana
And it ain't nothin' like the US if you get busted
And I hear he's all hawked up on that Marijuana
I can't help but worrying about her being down there
When he leaves her and you know he's gonna leave her
Any day now, yeah the cops will come around
Wanna know what I've known All I know about Mexico
Was him with my baby on the back of that Harley
Passin' every car as fast as they could go
And all I know about a pretty white sand
Is she's probably on it now sharing a little beach towel
With her left me for another man
Oh she's working on her tan I bet, while I'm here trying to forget
All I know about Mexico All I knew about Mexico
Was him with my baby on the back of that Harley
Passin' every car just as fast as they could go
And all I know about a pretty white sand
Is she's probably on it now sharing her little beach towel
With her left me for another man
Oh she's working on her tan I bet, while I'm here trying to forget
All I know about Mexico All I know, I know, I know, I know about Mexico
