

Finest Lovin' Man

Bonnie Raitt

The man I'm lovin' don't worry 'bout me runnin' around
You won't ever find my baby hustlin' after me all over town
You don't have to shout, you don't even have to call
Knows I'm comin' home even if I got to crawl
He'll get me when he wants me, he's the finest lovin' man around
When he gets up in the morning or when he comes home late at night
You know the man's always hungry, knows I'm gonna cook it up just right
He don't ever hurry, he just takes his time
Just a little taste is all it takes to make him mine
He'll get it when he wants it, he's the finest lovin' man around
Some women they act just like their men will never amount to no good
You know they are always on the cheat

And never treat him like a good woman should
You want him to do you right, honey, that ain't the way, yeah
You got to love him all night, you do just what he say
And you get just what you give out, that's the only way to gain his place
Now me and my baby, we always know just what we're puttin' down
And we know we'll be together
Till the day when something better comes around
Till that day comes you won't hear me complaining, yeah
I'll take him like he is 'cause you know I can't change him
I'll love him best I can, he's the finest lovin' man around
Oh yeah yeah
