

Without a Trace

Fates Warning

What lurks behind the minds of men
The switch is triggered once again
A silent rage makes the front page
A work of art so neatly done
Homicide cannot decide was it accident? Was it suicide? She's just a face without a name never made it home
They found her car burned down by the lake
The bottom was raked, the news says it's a classic case
She disappeared without a trace
A witness reward but nothing is heard, but Run, rabbit run, hawk in sky hides in the sun
Run for you life he'll take it away, run, run, run, faster away
Don't look behind you'll stun if you look in his eye
Run for your life he'll take it away, run, run, run, faster away
You better run away Defective unit on the street tonight
He hunts the weak and clips its wings
The moon ignites a flaming raging child
An empty soul is running wild, yeah Ohh, he's just a name without a face, hides from the camera in disgrace
His mother stands by, wipes the tears from her eyes
In an island in the sea rots a mind of seventeen
He dreams of a girl that he cast from this world Run, rabbit run, hawk in sky hides in the sun
Run for you life he'll take it away, run, run, run, faster away
Don't look behind you'll stun if you look in his eye
Run for your life he'll take it away, run, run, run, faster away
