

Black Gold

Millencolin

Can you pass me the black gold?
I wanna know how many shirts got sold I'm gonna beat you in soccer we bought our Juve-shirts in an Italian footlocker we saw the real world today poor swedes were afraid left France behind us broke some fingers of Magnus' Like it or not, I always say that I'd rather go home like it or not, this time I never wanted to go home Ingredients is a big thing we crown Stavanger to king wanna see more of Moulder at night the bus is getting colder we saw the real world today did you know it's in Brussels? now we hope that you missed us we'll be home to X-mas Wanna see you again someday soon, it'd be great you're totally o.k it's over now, it's December like a friend once said, it's times to remember
