Repulsion

Atomizer

I feel your eyes upon me
How should I act today?
To feel so unsure always
Give up or now keep on this wayThe silence taps my elbow
It's good, least that's what she said
I could run but I stand and greet it
Boredom won't starve as long as I feed itThe world drips down like gravy
The thoughts of love so hazy
Everyone's ideal of funRepulsionTry to wake up, try to break it open
It's not quite the right feeling
I'll just keep on hopingThe girls, they smile and say hello
The darkness drags me back home
It's hard to face it
Still waiting, still aloneThe world drips down like gravy
The thoughts of love so hazy
Everyone's ideal of funRepulsionTry to wake up, try to break it open
It's not quite the right feeling
I'll just keep on hopingThe world drips down like gravy
The thoughts of love so hazy
Everyone's ideal of funRepulsion
Repulsion
Repulsion
