

Red Alert

The Design

Thick in this dive
Tall boy in my hand
Pushed skin-tight to electric flesh pulsating to the band
I feel your body heat behind me
Magnetic current pulls you deep into meAw, come on
Give me some
This is a red alert!
Slam you up against the wall
And kiss you till it hurts
Aw, come on
Give me some
This is a red alert!
Come on, make me wake up wearing nothing but your t-shirt
Your t-shirtAnticipation
Give in
After I part my lips you won't know where you've been Intoxication bound by slick skin
I close my eyes
Decide to let you in
Let you inAw, come on
Give me some
This is a red alert!
Slam you up against the wall
And kiss you till it hurts
Aw, come on
Give me some
This is a red alert!
Come on, make me wake up wearing nothing but yourI move
You stir
The room
Is all a blur
Lost control
Irresistible
I've got your soulAw, come on
Give me some
This is a red alert!
Slam you up against the wall
And kiss you till it hurts
Aw, come on

Give me some
This is a red alert!
Come on, make me wake up wearing nothing but your t-shirt
Aw, come on
Give me some
This is a red alert!
Slam you up against the wall
And kiss you till it hurts
Aw, come on
Give me some
This is a red alert!
Come on, make me wake up wearing nothing but your t-shirt
Nothing but your t-shirt
Nothing but your t-shirt
Nothing but your shirt
Aw, come on
Give me some
This is a red alert!
