Just Friends

Ally Barron

Tell me does your heart
Beat for something it cant have
And all it needs
Is me to put the pieces back

I watch you watchin' me
While your siting next to her
But I'm still gonna be the friend you need even if it hurt

But I cant help it
All the feelings that you put me through
I know its selfish
But I'm only me when I'm with you
With you

Were just friends
Its just not right
I'll wait till the moments right
Cause your just you and I'm just me
I'm wishin' that we could be
Just a little more than this
Just a little more than just friends

I know you feel the same
I know it when u make me laugh
Cause I can see the red and its in your cheeks
And now I'm blushin' bad
