

Today

Fuel Fandango

Today I have nothing inside
I feel no emotions of any kind
Today I have nothing inside
I feel no emotions of any kind
I used to feel Today... today
Today I have nothing inside
I feel no emotions of any kind
Today... I realize
Today... I will find
Today There is no smile without tears
There is no soul without brain
There is no life without death
There is no love without pain
Today... today
Today... I realize
Today... today
Today... today Today I make my way
Through the dark
I find my path
Into the light There is no smile without tears
There is no soul without brain
There is no life without death
There is no love without pain There is no smile without tears
There is no soul without brain
There is no love without pain
There is no love
Today... today... today
Today... today... today
Today... today... I realize
Today... I will find
Today
