

Morning TrainÂ (feat. Groove Quartet)

Frankie Chavez

Morning train, will bring hope again
Morning train, will bring hope again Misery, got a hold on me
My baby's gone,
All I got is this song
The people all around, yeah,
I hear them weeping loud
The world has changed, I wonder who's to blame Morning train, will bring hope again
Morning train, will bring hope again The line is drawn, it keeps right from wrong
I wonder where should I stand, my feet are stuck in sand
Should I stay, (yeah) or should I go?
I might as well wait for this train, I hope it takes me home
Morning train, will bring hope again
Morning train, will bring hope again
