

Priceless

Sebastian Kole

Scraping up my
Quarters, nickels, dimes
Until I find the right thing to buy
All the perfect ways to say that I
I love you Saving up the change in my room
To buy the moon
Oh, what's the asking price?
See, I want you to own the night
You're a star it's on the line
Oh, I don't have much
Can't buy you diamonds
I'll give my love and spend my time
Cause you're priceless oh
Baby, you're priceless
Oh
Oh, I'd give every dollar I have
Well, I'd rather give you all that I am
Cause you're priceless
Oh, you're priceless
Oh, you're priceless
And nothing in this world can compare Flowers, cards, and candies
They all fail when I, comparing them to you
Oh, see, I would buy a planet if I had it and I'd Hand it over
Oh, make my kisses jewlery
I'll place them on your neck
Instead of pearls
Oh, I'm wrapped around your finger like a ring instead of rubies in my world
Oh, I dont have much
Can't buy your diamonds
I'll give my love and spend my time
Cause you're priceless
Oh, baby you're priceless
Oh
Oh, I'd spend every dollar I find
I can't pay enough to say that you're mine
Cause you're priceless
Oh, you're priceless
Girl, you're priceless
(And nothing in this world can compare) I would give you the ocean

If you gave me the notion
That it'd make you feel love
I need you to know nothing is too much
Oh, nothing is enough
The moments that we touch worth more than goldOh, I'd spend every dollar I find
I can't pay enough to say that you're mine
And nothing in this world can compare
