Heads To The Sky

Outlandish

[Chorus:]Keep ya head to the sky [x4] (every man gotta story to tell bout how the made it into this World) Back in 1965 in motherlands street cafe where young men were sitting down drinking coffee 'till this brother came in u could tell by the look at his face that he had something that he wanted to share a story told by a brother to another 'bout heaven, a lotta money and beer see everybody who gathered around this special man that sunny night left the caf
