

Brighter Than the Dark

Turin Brakes

Oh catch that spark in the dark
Ride that wave
When you were young you were a mountain
Not a slave
There's no wrong or right
Just day for night
You can hold your tongue but your history will find the light
All hearts are broken from the start
Broke the deal at the door and
They doubled down
They sold the sun and now they're measuring our ground
Smiling assassins climb the walls
And paint this town
Our hearts are broken from the start
Oh catch that spark in the dark
Ride that wave
When you were young you were the eagle
Not the prey
Your heart is brighter than dark
