Mountain

Janiva Magness

Just one small hint now
That's all I'm listening for
Don't need to tell me you're sorry
Don't want to hear you vent no moreDarling please don't lie
I could leave with some piece of my pride
Let me walk down this mountain
Before the mountain comes downWhy would I have regrets
They won't even take the place
Of all these pictures I carry
Each one with ten times the stingJust one can look now
Heaven on earth my touch
Won't make your think that you're staying
Won't make me ask for your touchDarling please don't lie
Let me leave with some piece of my pride
Let me walk down this mountain
Before the mountain comes downI don't nead to hear the reason
I don't need to read your lips
I know sometimes it just goes like this
Maybe somewhere inside your heart
There's still a piece of you that will give me this:Darling please don't lie
Let me leave with some piece of my pride
Let me walk down the mountain
Before the mountain comes downLet me walk down this mountain
Before the mountain comes down
