Palm Springs

Lauren Sanderson

Girl, you know how hard I try, to make it work, you still wonder why, ever thought that we could do it? You know I can't fall victim to the pain and all the power and girl, you know how hard I try, I'm moving on, you still wonder why, ever thought that we could do it? You know I can't fall victim, don't get it twisted now.
No longer I'm you're cupid, yeah I learned that three times ago, and what you think I'm stupid? Stop calling my phone.
Stop hitting up my line and shit, yeah
Talking bout our time and shit, yeah
You miss me you know it girl she said yeah, yeah.
It was never that wrong, baby we ain't breaking rules, mama looking high class talking palm springs cool
Honey drop it to the floor, ask her what she in a hurry bout, drop it to the floor
Pretty little face, and your cutie little dimples
Freckles from the sun, talkin bout freeing the nipple
Staring at your lips, and I wanna feel your body, look you in the eyes tell you meet me in the lobby
Girl, you know how hard I try, to make it work, you still wonder why, ever thought that we could do it? You know I can't fall victim to the pain and all the power and girl, you know how hard I try, I'm moving on, you still wonder why, ever thought that we could do it? You know I won't fall victim, don't get it twisted now.
What she gon worry bout the money or the fame? What she gon worry bout the honeys or the game? What she gon worry bout, yeah, what she gon worry bout yeah?
What she gon worry bout commitment or the pain? What you really in it for the bottles or the shade? What she gon worry bout, yeah? What she gon worry bout, yeah?
Girl, you know how hard I try, to make it work, you still wonder why, ever thought that we could do it? You know I can't fall victim to the pain and all the power and girl, you know how hard I try, I'm moving on, you still wonder why, ever thought that we could do it? You know I won't fall victim, don't get it twisted now.
