

The Wanderer

Seemless

The shadow that's lost carries a burden
It's cursed to roam
But there's a whispering in my mind
They're sayin' this road will lead you down Into your heart, into your soul
Your broken wings will lead you down
Still fallin' down The shadow that is found
Can see the light within their soul
But there's a whispering in my mind
They're sayin' this road will lead you down Into your heart, into your soul
Your broken wings will lead you down Follow the light to lead you out
Before you fall into the shadows Down The shadow that's lost carries a burden
It's cursed to roam Down
Go down
Yeah Well, I am my worst enemy
Fell into the life of the wanderer
Searching for a way to drag you
Down Into your soul
