

Doublespeak

Brett Fuentes

Has their government fallen?
Their stronghold seems steadyRun we will run we must
In God we trust
To push on for my countrySome say they have God on their shoulders
I say it's a hard itch to reachThey say fight we must fight
But some will fall
They say war
And war we willRun we will run we must
In God we trust
To push on
For my country
They say fight we must fight
But some will fall
They say war
And war we willOh but what are we fighting for
