

So You Die

Bloodbath

I will have a feast on your soul and watch your world as it comes tumbling down you know there is no return

I will make you burn inside your time has comeI show no mercy you know i know no other way than to revel in your flesh

I am born to conquer so you dieI live inside you

I won't surrender so you dieand now when your days are counted i have reached my goal you are broken down your life is lost i have collected yet another soulthat's when you see that you have lost your soul to me that's when you feel that you have lost the will to live and i am still here waiting for the next to drain of life and I am stronger now than when i took your useles lifeno living thing can be spared from my attack when i feel the urge to kill

I hate your breath and the strength you get from life because i have never lived and now its my time to be one with all the mortal ones that walk the earth

I enter human form my wicked soul lives on into eternity
