

Once Upon a Time

Kamelot

I am scorning this heavenly scheme
With a stench of destruction
I'm a reaper of beautiful dreams
And she knows I'm on the edge, sacrament Push, please push me over Tell me once upon a time
I close my eyes and see myself reborn
Right in the line I won't stay to stand in line
Or wait for god to shine all over me
I wait for the storm I am you and I know that you hear
You and I have the lesson, the end of the world
Then we talk, we run and we hide
Then so what? The human race suffocates Leave me breathless Tell me once upon a time
I close my eyes and see myself reborn
Right in the line I won't stay to stand in line
Or wait for god to shine all over me
I wait for the storm
I wait for the storm
I wait for the storm Move along
Through the ashes of a dream
Move along
I see myself with you again Tell me once upon a time
I close my eyes and see myself reborn
Right in the line I won't stay to stand in line
Or wait for god to shine all over me
I wait for the storm
