The Time Is Now

Phil Wickham

VERSE 1
The battle line is drawn, it's all in black and white.
Hope is pulling forward, and fear, from behind, it's time.VERSE 2
It's time to make a move, so what will you decide?
The clock is ticking on, don't let it pass you by, it's time.
It's time.CHORUS
The time is now, for lifting souls.
The time is now, for letting go.
From your skin, to your core.
Let light, and love, come rushing through the door.
Oh, come rushing through the door.VERSE 3
You've learned every song, memorized the verse,
Took the bread and wine, and even bought the shirt,
It's time.VERSE 4
It's time to hold your shield, it's time to draw your sword,
Let's lead the resistance, oh Lord, oh Lord, oh Lord, it's time.
Yeah it's time.[CHORUS]CHORUS 2
It's time to make a stand, to put your heart in greater hands,
From your skin, to your core,
Let light, and love, come rushing through the door.BRIDGE
Sisters, Brothers, thieves, and lovers
Come and enter eternity
turn your faces from finite places
Heaven's grace will set you free.[CHORUS][CHORUS 2]Oh, come rushing through the door.
